Deputy Governor Vladimir Krumov and the General Secretary of Burgas Regional Administration were among scores of people of Burgas who paid tribute today to the memory and deed of the great Bulgarian revolutionary and patriot Vasil Levski. They laid wreaths and flowers at his memorial in the Sea garden of Burgas. Representatives of the Burgas clergy held a requiescat. The ceremony finished with honouring Levski's memory by observing a minute of silence and with the national anthem of Republic of Bulgaria.
