

---

Deputy Governor Sevdalina Turmanova and servants at Burgas Regional Administration gave assistance to a charity exhibition in support of children with special educational needs in Burgas municipality. The exponents arranged in the exhibition are a part of the National contest for children's painting, model of mummer doll and mask titled "Let's chase away the evil, let's be better" organized by Smile Society. Children aged 5 to 18 years from the kindergartens and schools in the country took part in the contest with 854 paintings and 230 mummer dolls and mummer masks. The financial means collected during the charity event will be used for construction of educational platform for children with special needs.

Burgas Regional Administration is the first host of the exhibition which will become mobile and can be visited by the people of Burgas in the Museum of Ethnography, the Sea Casino and Youth Culture Centre.

Burgas Municipality, Regional Inspectorate of Education, Museum of Ethnography, Burgas Artists' Society as well as private companies providing the awards for the children are partners of Smile Society regarding this contest. The exhibition is very attractive and the people of Burgas can have a look at the unique works from 28.02. till 06.03. in the Museum of Ethnography, from 09.03. till 17.03 in the Sea Casino and from 18.03. in the Youth Culture Centre.