
Dear Ladies,

On the occasion of the International Women's Day – 8th March, I am addressing myself to you with a feeling of respect and gratitude. With the tender and delicate characteristic of yours you manage to bring harmony and goodness into the human relationship. Thank to you the world is a better, cozy and beautiful place of life. You are the power which gives life as a present and continues the being of humanity. Bulgarian woman is synonymous with beauty, strong mind and dignity. In the past Bulgarian women were famous for their patriotism, for having been combative and extraordinary brave. There are multiple cases in our country's history of female heroes whose actions give us today the occasion for pride and self-confidence. Contemporary Bulgarian women are in every way equal their forerunners' from the past. You are remarkable for qualities like erudition, diligence, you are ambitious and caring. You manage a successful career and a good mother and example at the same time. I wish you to be healthy, to feel esteemed, respected and happy! Happy Women's Day!
