

---

Governor Valcho Cholakov and the administration staff joined the cleaning campaign. This year the initiative will be conducted in 5 stages and the first on 10 May is a day of cleaning our homes' area. The area of the Regional Administration and the Old Court chosen by the institution was found to be relatively clean. All servants joined and a part of them came together with their families.