
Under the patronage of Deputy Governor and Regional representative of the Bulgarian Academy of Science in Burgas Sevdalina Turmanova in the Night of Museums the exhibition "Communion Bread. Bread and Liturgy" was shown. The exposition presents a collection of unique Communion Bread stamps and ritual breads from the whole Bulgarian ethnic area. Among the exhibits are stamps from 19th and 20th century which are paragons of exquisite wood-carving. Part of them have arrived to our country from Mount Athos (Sveta gora) where some centres of their workmanship are functioning.

The event is organized by the National Ethnographic Museum of the Bulgarian Academy of Science and the Regional History Museum of Burgas. The exhibition can be visited till 30th September.
