

---

Burgas will be a city where high technologies in development will be applied and it will become a Smart City, Deputy Mayor of Burgas Municipality Krasimir Stoychev said during the ribbon-cutting ceremony of the bus depot of Burgasbus Ltd. Through carried out activities of the project "Integrated City Transport of Burgas" modern conditions have been created corresponding to European standards for technics and safety, repair and maintenance of the bus fleet. A new infrastructure is built in an area of over 20 000 sq. m. and the production halls are re-equip with the aim to technically maintain the renewed fleet of diesel and methane busses and trolley busses. New built are technical checkup point, oil-control and oil-change hall, bus washing installation. Specialized workshops have been re-constructed and perfect working conditions have been created for the fitters' staff.