

---

Stanislava Boycheva, the 24-years old World champion in kyokushin karate received a golden decoration of honour for special merit in sports. The other day this young hope of Sporting Club "Samurai-Burgas" demonstrated an excellent performance (5:0) referee votes in the finals of the KWU kyokushin championship (in categories) carried out in Habarovsk, Russia.

The second gold this week Boycheva received from Governor Valcho Cholakov in person. The Burgas girl visited Burgas Regional Administration at his invitation. To the meeting attended also the world champion's coach – Sensei Jivko Andreev.