The Minister of Environment and Water Ivelina Vasileva, Governor Valcho Cholakov and Mayor of Burgas Dimitar Nikolov rewarded the winners of the National contest "The sea is not for one vacation" at the Flora Exhibition Centre.

The events were dedicated to the International Black Sea Day – 31 October, and the organizers are Municipal Children's Centre, Regional Museum of History, Black Sea Basin Directorate and Burgas Municipality.

Traditionally the Municipal Children's Centre in Burgas is every year a host of the National contest "The sea is not for one vacation".

This year 38 children of different ages were in the finals of the photography and painting contest.

Minister Ivelina Vasileva reminded that Bulgaria is a member of the International Convention for Black Sea Protection which is including all 6 countries who have a Black sea outlet.
