
Governor Valcho Cholakov met H.E. Irit Lillian - Ambassador of the State of Israel to Bulgaria. The occasion of her visit to Burgas is a photographer's exhibition devoted to the 25th anniversary of the re-establishment of Bulgarian-Israeli diplomatic relations.

H.E. Irit Lillian is for the first time in the sea city. She has been appointed to the post of ambassador in October this year when the mandate of the former representative of the State of Israel in our country Shaul Kamisa Raz expired.

The Israeli diplomat was accompanied by the Deputy Head of Mission and the economy and defense adviser.

During the meeting Mr. Cholakov presented the opportunities for tourism and investment in Burgas region. Ambassador Lillian appreciated the hospitality and the efforts of the local authorities to secure the stay of the Israeli tourists. The Israeli Embassy committed itself to present periodically information for business events in Israel which would be of interest for Burgas.
