Little boys – carol singers from kinder garden "Rakovina" gave smiles, songs and wishes for health and a good new year as a present to the employees of Burgas Regional Administration. The kids were welcomed by Governor Valcho Cholakov. According to the symbolic Bulgarian traditions the master of the house where the carol singers are foretelling showed them out with gifts.

One day earlier children from Municipal Children Center in Sredets raised the Christmas mood of the Administration by exhibiting their paintings on the occasion.
